Depend on U.S. Bank Freight Payment to help you work with your shippers better, ensure timely payments, and save time. Trusted by some of the biggest carriers in the country.

Sheets labeled Invoice. Check marks appear on each.

(SPEECH)

With U.S. Bank Freight Payment, most of your invoices are automatically approved for payment without any additional work.

A question mark appears on one sheet. Text, visibility for you and your customer.

(SPEECH)

When there are questions, you get a collaborative website that gives you and your customers complete visibility to how the shipment was priced, and any additional requests from the shipper so you can easily review them and clear things up.

Question mark turns to check mark. Text, get paid directly to your account.

(SPEECH)

As soon as you deliver loads, send your invoices electronically, and they're paid directly to your bank account upon approval. It's not factoring and it's not a loan. You're just paid quickly.

You are paid quickly. Sheet labeled invoice, caution symbols appear. Receivables, Payment statuses, notes. View pending invoices and statuses.

(SPEECH)

With other freight payment solutions, issues may not be visible to you. You can track your total receivables, payment statuses, and any customer notes, as well as your own, all in one place, with dashboards and insights that you can use to help you better manage your business. Clearly see all your pending invoices and know where they are in the payment process, helping you to more accurately forecast your cash position.

Get paid the right amount the first time. With U.S. Bank Freight Payment, you can fix the problem before payment instead of sending another invoice and waiting longer.

Fix problems before payment.

(SPEECH)

Sometimes, there's a real difference between what you build and what the shipper expects.

(SPEECH)

Before U.S. Bank Freight Payment, this meant a lot of emails and phone calls chasing a resolution. Now you can simply attach a note online, and it goes directly to your customer, so issues can be resolved quickly.

Billed and expected labels meet on graph bar.

(SPEECH)

Thanks to APIs and other tools, your shipping documents can be available at the push of a button.

Mouse clicks circle which expands to web. Text, bill of lading, invoice, delivery receipt, weight certificate.

(SPEECH)

Everything is right there, connected to the invoice and visible to everyone who needs to see it in real time. Your team won't have to waste time searching for documents and sending them to individual shippers.

Automatic invoice audit. Sheet labeled invoice with exclamation point symbol.

(SPEECH)

U.S. Bank Freight Payments audits your invoices and lets you know when things are not matching up. If you accidentally bill less than expected, the system helps you so you don't leave money on the table. Your business is truly valued. It's not just about getting paid. You and your team get a great system and service from a trusted and reliable partner.
